The purpose of this exams policy is:

- to ensure the planning and management of exams is conducted efficiently and in the best interests of candidates;
- to ensure the operation of an efficient exams system with clear guidelines for all relevant staff.

It is the responsibility of everyone involved in the centre's exam processes to read, understand and implement this policy.

The exams policy will be reviewed every year

The exams policy will be reviewed by the Examinations Office

Where references are made to JCQ regulations/guidelines, further details can be found at www.jcq.org.uk.

Exam responsibilities

The head of centre:

- has overall responsibility for the school/college as an exams centre and advises on appeals and re-marks.
- is responsible for reporting all suspected or actual incidents of malpractice - refer to the JCQ document Suspected malpractice in examinations and assessments.

Exams officer¹:

- manages the administration of external exams
- advises the senior leadership team, subject and class tutors, and other relevant support staff on annual exams timetables and procedures as set by the various awarding bodies.
- oversees the production and distribution, to all centre staff and candidates, of an annual calendar for all exams in which candidates will be involved and communicates regularly with staff concerning imminent deadlines and events.
- ensures that candidates and their parents are informed of and understand those aspects of the exams timetable that will affect them.
- provides and confirms detailed data on estimated entries.
- maintains systems and processes to support the timely entry of candidates for their exams.
- receives, checks and stores securely all exam papers and completed scripts and ensures that scripts are dispatched as per the guidelines.
- makes applications for special consideration following the regulations in the JCQ publication A guide to the special consideration process.
- identifies and manages exam timetable clashes.
- accounts for income and expenditures relating to all exam costs/charges.
- manages the recruitment, training, and monitoring of a team of exams invigilators responsible for the conduct of exams.
- arranges for dissemination of exam results and certificates to candidates and forwards, in consultation with the SLT, any post results service requests.

Heads of Department* are responsible for:

- guidance and pastoral oversight of candidates who are unsure about exams entries or amendments to entries.
- accurate completion of subject exam entries and adherence to deadlines as set by the exams officer.
- accurate completion of coursework / controlled assessment mark sheets and declaration sheets.

¹ This is the individual to whom the Head of Centre has delegated responsibility for the administration of exams in their centre.

- checks with teaching staff that the necessary coursework and/or controlled assessments are completed on time and in accordance with JCQ guidelines.
- decisions on post-results procedures.
- ensures candidates' coursework / controlled assessment marks are submitted, and any other material required by the appropriate awarding bodies correctly and on schedule.
- tracks, dispatches, and stores returned coursework / controlled assessments.
- informing the Examinations Officer of any Board changes

Teachers are responsible for:

- supplying information on entries, coursework and controlled assessments as required by the head of department and/or exams officer.

The Head of Learning support is responsible for:

- identification and testing of candidates' requirements for access arrangements and notifying the exams officer in good time so that they are able to put in place exam day arrangements
- process any necessary applications in order to gain approval (if required).
- working with the exams officer to provide the access arrangements required by candidates in exams rooms.

Lead invigilator/invigilators are responsible for:

- assisting the exams officer in the efficient running of exams according to JCQ regulations.
- collection of exam papers and other material from the exams office before the start of the exam.
- collection of all exam papers in the correct order at the end of the exam and ensuring their return to the exams office.

Candidates are responsible for:

- confirmation and signing of entries.
- understanding coursework/controlled assessment regulations and signing a declaration that authenticates the coursework as their own.
- ensuring they conduct themselves in all exams according to the JCQ regulations.

Qualifications offered

The qualifications offered at this centre are decided by the Head

The types of qualifications offered are iGCSE, GCSE, FSMQ, GCE

The subjects offered for these qualifications in any academic year may be found in the centre's published prospectus or similar documents for that year. If there is to be a change of specification for the next year, the exams office must be informed as soon as possible.

Informing the exams office of changes to a specification is the responsibility of the Head of Department

Decisions on whether a candidate should be entered for a particular subject will be taken by Head of Department in consultation with the Assistant Head Academic (AMS)

Exam series

Internal exams (mock or trial exams) and assessments are scheduled in January, March and May

External exams and assessments are scheduled in April/May/June

Internal exams are held under external exam conditions.

Exam timetables

Once confirmed, the exams officer will circulate the exam timetables for external exams at a specified date before each series begins.

Entries, entry details and late entries

Candidates or parents/carers can request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal but this must be discussed with the Assistant Head Academic and Head of Department

The centre does not accept entries from private candidates.

The centre does not act as an exams centre for other organisations.

Entry deadlines are circulated to heads of department via email, briefing meetings.

Heads of department will provide estimated entry information to the exams officer to meet JCQ and awarding body deadlines.

Entries and amendments made after an awarding organisation's deadline (i.e. late) require the authorisation, in writing, of AMS

- GCSE re-sits are allowed
- AS re-sits are allowed
- A level re-sits for leaving Upper 6th are allowed

Re-sit decisions will be made by AMS in consultation with candidates

Exam fees

Candidates or departments will not be charged for changes of tier, withdrawals made by the proper procedures or alterations arising from administrative processes provided these are made within the time allowed by the awarding bodies.

The exams officer will publish the deadline for actions well in advance for each exams series.

GCSE and GCE entry exam fees are paid by the centre and then charged to pupils sundries accounts

Late entry or amendment fees are paid by the department/pupils depending on reason for late entry.

Re-sit fees are paid by the candidates/parents

Equality Legislation

All exam centre staff must ensure that they meet the requirements of any equality legislation.

The centre will comply with the legislation, including making reasonable adjustments to the service that they provide to candidates in accordance with requirements defined by the legislation, awarding bodies, and JCQ. This is the responsibility of the Exams officer

Access arrangements

The Head of Learning support will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs and any special arrangements that individual candidates will need during the course and in any assessments/exams.

A candidate's access arrangements requirement is determined by the Head of Learning support in conjunction with the schools recognised Educational Psychologist, Dr Claire Zabell.

Ensuring there is appropriate evidence for a candidate's access arrangement is the responsibility of Head of Learning support

Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the Head of Learning support in conjunction with the Exams Officer

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the Exams Officer

Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates, as defined in the JCQ access arrangements regulations, will be organised by the Exams Officer

Contingency planning

Contingency planning for exams administration is the responsibility of the Exams Officer in conjunction with the Head of Centre

Contingency plans are available from the Exams Office and are in line with the guidance provided by Ofqual, JCQ and awarding organisations.

Estimated grades

Heads of Department are responsible for submitting estimated grades to the exams officer when requested by the exams officer.

Managing invigilators

External staff will be used to invigilate examinations. These invigilators will be used for external exams

Recruitment of invigilators is the responsibility of the Exams Officer

Securing the necessary Disclosure Barring Service (DBS) clearance for new invigilators is the responsibility of the HR department

Invigilators' rates of pay are set by the Bursar

Invigilators are recruited, timetabled, trained, and briefed by the Exams Officer

Malpractice

The head of centre in consultation with the Exams Officer is responsible for investigating suspected malpractice.

Exam days

The exams officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilator.

Site management staff are responsible for setting up the allocated rooms, and will be advised of requirements well in advance.

The Senior Invigilator will start and finish all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Subject staff may not be present at the start of the exam to assist with identification of candidates. Any staff present must be in accordance with the rules defined by JCQ concerning who is allowed in the exam room and what they can do.

In practical exams, subject teachers' availability will be in accordance with JCQ guidelines. Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Papers will be distributed to heads of department in accordance with JCQ's recommendations.

After an exam, the exams officer will arrange for the safe dispatch of completed examination scripts to awarding bodies, working in conjunction with the School office

Candidates

The exams officer will provide written information to candidates in advance of each exam series. A formal briefing session for candidates may be given by the Exams Officer

The centre's published rules on acceptable dress and behaviour apply at all times. Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

In an exam room candidates must not have access to items other than those clearly allowed in the instructions on the question paper, the stationery list, or the specification for that subject. This is particularly true of mobile phones and other electronic communication or storage devices with text or digital facilities. Any precluded items must not be taken into an exam room.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines. Candidates are expected to stay for the full exam time at the discretion of the Senior Invigilator

Note: candidates who leave an exam room must be accompanied by an appropriate member of staff at all times.

The Exams officer is responsible for handling late or absent candidates on exam day.

Clash candidates

The Exams Officer will be responsible as necessary for supervising escorts, identifying a secure venue and arranging overnight stays.

Special consideration

Should a candidate be unable to attend an exam because of illness, suffer bereavement or other trauma, be ill or otherwise disadvantaged or disturbed during an exam, then it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre's Exams Office to that effect.

The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence within 7 days of the exam.

The exams officer will make a special consideration application to the relevant awarding body within 7 days of the exam.

Internal assessment

It is the duty of Heads of Department to ensure that all internal assessment is ready for dispatch at the correct time. The HOD should keep a record of each dispatch, including the recipient details and the date and time sent.

Marks for all internally assessed work are provided to the exams office by the Heads of Department. The exams officer will inform staff of the date when appeals against internal assessments must be made by. Any appeals will be dealt with in accordance with the centre's Internal Appeals Procedure (IAP) document.

Results

All Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days. Sixth form pupils will be able to access their AS/A level results via the pupil portal from 6am on the day the results are issued.

Pupils undertaking GCSEs will be able to collect their results from school at 9am on the day the results are issued and will be able to access them via the pupil portal from 11am on the day the results are issued.

The results slip will be in the form of a centre produced document.

Arrangements for the centre to be open on results days are made by the Exams Officer

The provision of the necessary staff on results days is the responsibility of the Senior Leadership.

Enquiries about Results (EAR)

The cost of EARs will be paid by the candidate.

EARs may be requested by centre staff or the candidate following the release of results. A request for a re-mark or clerical check requires the written consent of the candidate, a request for a re-moderation of internally assessed work may be submitted without the consent of the group of candidates.

All decisions on whether to make an application for an EAR will be made by Head of Department.

If a candidate's request for an EAR is not supported, the candidate may appeal and the centre will respond by following the process in its Internal Appeals Procedure (IAP) document.

All processing of EARs will be the responsibility of the Exams Office following the JCQ guidance.

Access to Scripts (ATS)

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of written exam papers.

Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.

An EAR cannot be applied for once an original script has been returned.

The cost of EARs will be paid by the candidate unless it is ordered for the use of the department. In this case the department will pay for the script.

Processing of requests for ATS will be the responsibility of the Exams Office.

Certificates

GCSE Candidates will receive their certificates in person at the centre. A new certificate will not be issued by an awarding organisation. Pupils can ask for a copy of results from the Exams Office.

GCE students will receive their certificates in the post. All certificates will be sent with Proof of Posting to the pupils address as on the School system unless otherwise instructed.
